The Great Zoo Escape By Katie Colletta and Jason Sifford

It's another great day at the zoo, and the arrival of a new resident has everyone wild with excitement! But when the animals learn their zoo is in trouble, panic ensues. Will the animals join paws, hooves, and wings to save their beloved home? Join us for a high-flying adventure about the power of teamwork and being yourself!

Designed for students at all levels of theatre experience, campers will audition, rehearse, and perform a musical alongside three professional teaching artists...in one week! The Great Zoo Escape is a heart-warming one-hour production You can find our Footliters Traveling Playhouse policies at bit.ly/FTP_CampInfo. About Footliters Traveling Playhouse:

Footliters Traveling Playhouse is a new touring program of Young Footliters Youth Theatre from Coralville. Together with master teaching artists, we're creating engaging theatre experiences for students across Iowa. Our week- long camps are open to students of all backgrounds, experience levels, and training. Footliters Traveling Playhouse is committed to "engaging and empowering students through an immersive, inclusive theatre experience." We put our students first and collaborate with parents and communities to make our theatre a safe and exciting space for all.
